

Rich McBee
President and Chief Executive Officer
Riverbed Technology

Rich McBee was appointed President and CEO of Riverbed Technology in October 2019. McBee brings more than 30 years of experience holding top leadership roles driving market expansion, revenue growth and operations excellence at a range of technology companies.

Prior to joining Riverbed, McBee served as President and CEO for Mitel, leading strategy, business performance and worldwide execution where he transformed the company into a leading global provider of cloud communications. Previously, McBee served as President of the Communications and Enterprise Group of Danaher Corporation. In this role, he was responsible for annual sales derived from carrier, enterprise, and SMB markets via both direct sales and channel partners. McBee joined Danaher in 2007 when they acquired Tektronix Communications, where he has worked since 1998 in a variety of leadership positions including: Senior Vice President and General Manager, Communications Business Unit; Senior Vice President of Worldwide Sales, Service and Marketing; and Vice President of Marketing and Strategic Initiatives.

McBee holds a Master's Degree in Business Administration from the Chapman School of Business and Economics and graduated from the United States Air Force Academy with a Bachelor of Science in 1986.
